Letter to the Editor in Chief

I (name and surname)
corresponding author of (article title):

hereby should pledge as follows:
1 - The said article does not have any scientific or literary similarity (which can be considered as an example of plagiarism) with scientific researches that have been published so far, and any use of other researches that have been published so far, has been done by mentioning the reference in the text of the article and bibliographic specifications in the list of sources.
2- The article has not been published in any of the magazines before, and it has not been sent to other domestic or foreign magazines at the same time, and it will not be sent to another magazine until the review and peer review process of the manuscript have been completed and the final comment announced.
3- During the implementation of this research and the preparation of the article, all the principles of professional ethics related to the subject of the research, including respect for the authors' rights, have been observed.
4- If there is any conflict in the possible interests of the article between the authors or the sponsors of the research leading to the preparation of the article, the authors are solely responsible for it, and Pazand Quarterly will not have any responsibility in this regard.
5- I am aware of the unchangeable of the authors' names, information and order of insertion "in all the original and revised versions" and the content submitted by all the authors whose names and academic ranks are mentioned below has been studied and confirmed, and the name of no author without effective cooperation in the production of this article, it has not been mentioned.

E-mail address of the corresponding author:

Name and surname of the author(s):
Date and signature: